

Accounting

Bethel College, a Christian liberal arts college located in South Bend/Mishawaka, Indiana announces an opening for a full-time, tenure-track faculty member in accounting to begin fall semester, 2008. Responsibilities include teaching undergraduate and graduate (MBA) accounting courses, advising students, and participating in the college community. A PhD, DBA or JD is preferred; Masters degree, a CPA, and related professional experience is required. Candidates must show evidence of organizational skills, resourcefulness, versatility, and teaching effectiveness. A record of successful professional activity is preferred. Further details about the position and the application process can be found at: www.bethelcollege.edu/employment or by contacting James Stump, VP for Academic Services, stumpj@bethelcollege.edu, 574.257.3306.