

Assistant Professor Management

Mount St. Mary's University seeks a tenure track assistant / associate professor to teach undergraduate and MBA courses in management, organizational behavior, leadership, and the self-assessment of managerial skills. A Ph.D. or D.B.A. is required, and prior teaching and corporate, consulting, or governmental experiences are a plus. The position is situated in the Department of Business, Accounting, and Economics which comprises 20 full-time faculty members.

Mount St. Mary's University, located in Emmitsburg, Maryland, is the second oldest Catholic University in the United States. The 1900-student comprehensive university is a vibrant academic community where the words Faith, Discovery, Leadership, and Community are used to describe its collective calling and promise. Mount St. Mary's celebrates its bicentennial in 2008 and, with several crucial initiatives underway, continues to serve as one of America's premiere institutions of Catholic higher education. Additional information about Mount St. Mary's is available online at www.msmary.edu

The review of applications will begin on January 15, 2008 for an appointment in August 2008.

Applicants are requested to submit a resumé, transcripts, three letters of recommendation, and a cover letter which in part addresses the contribution the candidate can make to a Catholic liberal arts institution. Information is to be sent to: Department of Human Resources, Mount St. Mary's University, Search #07-62, 16300 Old Emmitsburg Road, Emmitsburg, Maryland 21727.

Mount St. Mary's University hires faculty who support our Catholic, liberal arts mission. Women and minorities are encouraged to apply. EOE.