

NATIONAL AMERICAN UNIVERSITY

System Business Program Chair

National American University (NAU) invites applications for the position of System Business Program Chair. The university holds regional accreditation, as well as IACBE program accreditation.

Qualifications: A master's degree in the field with five or more years of professional experience in work related to assigned teaching and curriculum development responsibilities. At least three years of documented successful teaching experience, and involvement in research and/or programs to improve teaching skills. An earned doctorate with a major in the area of assigned teaching responsibilities and the related experience requirements is preferred.

Major Responsibilities: The System Business Program Chair is responsible for program administration duties, such as participating in regional accreditation review and reports, coordinating program accreditation activities, conducting program reviews, working with program advisory committees, participating in assigned university committee meetings, and designing course curriculum, as well as teaching on-campus or online courses.

Application Requirements: Applications will be accepted and screening/interviewing will continue until the position is filled. Competitive salary based on experience. Geographic location of position is negotiable. Interested persons should complete a university application (www.national.edu) and send transcripts and a letter of interest with detailed resume to: Dr. Ronnie Monroe, System Director of Curriculum and Instruction, National American University, 5301 S. Highway 16, Suite 200, Rapid City, SD 57701. EEO.