

DEAN – SCHOOL OF BUSINESS

Point Park University, a private, accredited, career-oriented university located in the heart of downtown Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania, is seeking a Dean for its School of Business.

A coeducational independent urban university with a tradition of teaching excellence, Point Park currently enrolls approximately 3,500 students through its School of Business, Conservatory of Performing Arts, School of Arts and Sciences, and School of Adult and Professional Studies. Point Park has enjoyed several years of significant growth and exciting momentum.

The School of Business provides a diverse mix of undergraduate and graduate programs and degrees to almost 800 students in areas such as accounting, business management, information technology, and public administration. A new program in Sport, Arts and Entertainment Management draws in part on the synergies of Point Park's nationally acclaimed Conservatory of Performing Arts to offer a unique, contemporary, and high-demand education.

Point Park is seeking a dynamic, creative and entrepreneurial Dean who will build the Business School's stature, relevance, and demand in the community. This is an exciting opportunity for a professional who is accomplished at getting things done in an academic environment to bring added value to a University that is "on the rise" and to gain appropriate recognition and reward for accomplishing key strategic and business goals.

The anticipated date of appointment is August 2006. Nominations, applications (including a cover letter and resume), expressions of interest, or requests for information should be directed electronically to:
