

Lourdes College, a private, liberal arts college, sponsored by the Sisters of St. Francis of Sylvania, Ohio, invites applicants for a faculty position in Management and Strategy in its graduate school. This is a full-time nine month position.

This graduate faculty member in the Department of Business and Leadership Studies will hold primary responsibility for the delivery of a flexible combination of planning and strategy related courses in a newly developed M.B.A. program. This faculty member will coach the development and coordinate the assessment of student business plans. In addition, he/she will teach a limited number of strategy related courses in the Master of Organizational Leadership program and/or at the undergraduate level.

Qualifications:

- Ph.D or D.B.A. in Management and Strategy or related field as well as teaching experience at the graduate level is required
- Rank is dependent upon qualifications and experience
- Faculty members are expected to maintain academic qualifications consistent with accreditation standards for scholarship and intellectual contributions
- Faculty members are expected to fulfill service obligations including college and school governance, academic advisements, professional development and other needed activities.

Review of applications will begin in early April and continue until the position is filled. Please send your cover letter, curriculum vitae, statement of teaching and research, evidence of teaching effectiveness, and contact information for three professional references (all in MS Word or pdf format only) to resume@lourdes.edu

Lourdes College is grounded in the Franciscan values of learning, reverence and service, and is known for its quality academic programs and the personalized attention afforded to our students on 113 wooded acres in Sylvania, Ohio. With a growing enrollment, currently at 2,600 students and a student/faculty ratio of 14:1, the institution will transition to Lourdes University at the start of the 2011-12 academic year.

Toledo is a city of business, culture and education, rich in diversity and community. Located in Northwest Ohio, Toledo is situated along Lake Erie and bisected by the Maumee River. More than 600,000 people call the Toledo metropolitan area home—giving the region all the attributes of a large cosmopolitan area, but still retaining the advantages of small-town atmosphere and charm.

Lourdes College is committed to attracting and retaining highly qualified individuals who collectively reflect the diversity of our student body and society at-large. We believe it is educationally imperative to further our students' appreciation and understanding of a culturally diverse society, and we are committed to ensuring a diverse environment for all individuals, regardless of race, color, creed, gender, religion, nationality, ethnicity, sexual orientation, physical ability, disability or veteran status or other legally protected category in its programs, activities, and employment. In that spirit, we are especially interested in receiving applications from individuals who would contribute to the diversity of our community.